

ECONOMY OF KINDNESS

How Kindness Transforms Your Bottom Line

A CULTURE OF KINDNESS:

- Improves team performance
- Strengthens company morale
- Reduces stress and burnout
- Inspires creative collaboration
- Benefits the bottom line
- Elevates collective engagement

LINDA COHEN
CONSULTING

In Linda's highly interactive programs, we'll go well beyond Q+A with customized activities that allow for laughter, team recognition, and significant connection.

TESTIMONIALS

“Linda's kindness message and enthusiasm for the subject transcended through the screen and kept our audience engaged and interested. Her programs resonated with our members in a way that surpassed my expectations. I highly recommend her to my fellow meeting planners.”
– Melodie King, Director of Education, Oregon Health Care Association

“The workshop Linda facilitated for our division was filled with activities, discussion and laughter all centered on the topic of incorporating kindness into the workplace. Linda's work resonated with us all. We will be able to leverage this training to continue the economy of kindness.”
– Yvette Elledge-Rhodes, Deputy Director/COO, PERS

“Loved your presentation... loved how prepared you were, and how relevant your material was for our franchise network...THANK YOU! I'm sure we will be referring to your words for months and years to come.”
– J.J. Sorrenti, CEO, Best Life Brands

RECENT CLIENTS

ABOUT LINDA

Linda Cohen, THE KINDNESS CATALYST, is an internationally recognized kindness expert. She's been a professional speaker and consultant for over a decade, working closely with a wide variety of businesses and associations on the ROI of Kindness. Linda's highly interactive style will engage your attendees, boosting their morale, while sharing “aha” insights and tips to help navigate change. Virtually or live, Linda will inspire and motivate your participants. Attendees will identify several kindness practices to implement immediately.

LINDA'S BOOK

The Economy of Kindness provides real life examples of companies that have tapped into the magic of kindness to build, grow, and strengthen their organizations. It starts with leadership that instills kindness as part of their work protocol so that employees feel heard, appreciated, and connected.

